VETO

Is Exercised by Pres. Wilson in Dealing With the Army Bill

NEW BILL INTRODUCED

Complication May Delay Adjournment of Congress —President Objected to Clause Exempting Retired Officers From Discipline— Fight May Develop When New Bill is Debated

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, Aug. 18.—President Wilson today vetoed the army appropriation bill because of exemptions from discipline for retired officers forced into it by the house conferees led by Representative Hay over the opposition of the war department. A new bill will be necessary and may delay adjournment of congress.

Representative Hay said he would reintroduced the bill in the house immediately with the features to which the president objected, elliminated.

Mr. Hay followed his announcement by reintroducing the bill minus not only the section to which the President objected but with the whole revision of the articles or war elliminated. This threatened to complicate the situation.

There have been broad intimations that the revision which proposed to remove retired officers from the jurisdiction of courts martial was in the interest of a certain retired officer who was waiting for a time when he would be immune from discipline to make a public attack on the army.

The officer whose name was mentioned in connection with the report was while in service, very active in legisative affairs, was connected very closely to congressmen framing army bills, and until his retirement was reckoned with as a power in legisation affecting the army.

The president's veto of the bill is one of the developments of years of contest between the army and Chairman Hay. The downfall of the continental army scheme and substitution of the national guard reorganization against the recommendation of army officers is attributed to him.

Only the force of President Wilson's interference put the regular army increase in the new reorganization bill through the house in the face of Hays' opposition.

Recently President Wilson appointed Hay to a judgeship on the court of claims and he is now serving his last term in congress.

The war department contends that many features of the army bill were written into it in the conference and never were debated in house or senate.

Representative Hay announced that he would seek to pass the bill in the house under a special rule next Tuesday.

"The articles of war will not be permitted to get through in this bill again," he declared emphatically after a conference with several members of the military committee.

The danger of complication and delay lies in the fact that Chairman Chamberlain of the senate military committee said that if the house passed the bill without revision of the articles of war, the senate probably would reinsert them as they were passed by the senate. The President and war department were satisfied with that provision.

"The veto," said Senator Cham-

NOT ALL PRISONERS ARE IGNORANT SAYS PEN INVESTIGATOR.

Columbus, Aug. 18.—The majority of prisoners in the Ohio penitentiary are not grossly ignorant but have at least grammar school educations, according to figures compiled by J. W. Harrington, a prisoner serving time for forgery, whose business it is as secretary to the prison chaplain to find out the life history of each convict.

Harrington, himself a former student of Lake Forest College near Chicago, says that of the present prison population of 1,886 convicts, 1,161 prisoners received the major part of their elementary education. The totally illiterate totaled 309. College graduates numbered 26. Prisoners with high school diplomas numbered 106 while those who went to school only from the first to third grades numbered 284.

The records show, Harrington says, that 31 of the prisoners claimed to be temperate while 1148 admitted they were intemperate. The percentage of married and single men ran about even. There were 934 husbands and 947 bachelors. Burglary and larceny lead in crimes with 231. At the bottom of the list comes dynamiting and selling cocaine.

EIGHTY CASES CHILD PLAGUE IN CHICAGO SINCE FIRST OF JULY.

Chicago, Aug. 18.—Eighty cases of infantile paralysis have been received at the Cook County and Durand Hospitals in Chicago since July 1, it was announced today. An average of three patients a day is being received at the Cook County Hospital and emergency preparations are being made to receive a greater number. Health authorities do not consider the city in epidemic.

BRITISH PAPER SAYS EVANGELIST LOSES SYMPATHY.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

London, Aug. 18, 11:25 a. m.—Various influences particularly England's policy toward Ireland are arousing suspicion and resentment in the United States says the Manchester Guardian in a long editorial today. These facts cannot be ignored, it asserts, for the active co-operation of the United States will be necessary if a lasting peace is to be brought about by a league of the liberal pacific powers of the world.

The Guardian suggests the British orders in council, the censorship, the blacklist and interference with neutral mails have tended in some degree to alienate American sympathy from Great Britain and her allies.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

New Haven, Conn., Aug. 17.—An attempt to bring about a general strike for the eight-hour day of more than two thousand union machinists in the plant of the Winchester Repeating Arms company today apparently has failed, after months of campaigning by labor organizers among the 18,000 employes. The strike was to be effective at noon, but so far as observation could determine about 300 employees, only, failed to return to work.

Measures Necessary to Prevent Epidemic of Plague Next Year

CODE OF RULES SUGGESTED

Prohibition of Public Assembly of Children, Suppression of Flies and Common Drinking Cup Are Among Things Urged By Public Health Conference at Washington

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, August 18.—Warning that the infantile paralysis epidemic may appear next summer in other states unless drastic measures are taken to control its course was given today to the national conference of public health officers by the special committee named to recommend ways and means for its supression.

The committee recommended that state health authorities be notified by uniform health certificate of removal of all children under 16 years of age from epidemic areas Quarantine of one state or communition against another was disapproved. The committee recommended that during the usual prevalence of infantile paralysis schools should not be opened without medical supervision by a health authority.

Certificates for interstate travel, the committee held, should be signed by federal or state health officers.

Regarding measures to deal with epidemics, the report recommended:

Immediate report of all cases and exchange of weekly reports between state and federal authorities.

Daily observations for two weeks of all children under 16 years leaving an infected district.

Isolation of all diseased persons and attendants for six weeks.

Hospital treatment when possible.

Private funerals for victims.

Prohibitions of assembly of children in public places during an epidemic.

Suppression of flies and the common drinking cup and a general educational campaign for cleanliness and sanitation with particular instructions of parents and children concerning personal hygiene especially of the mouth and nose.

"The epidemic prevalent in certain states at this time indicated a possibility of epidemic prevalence next year in states not gravely affected now," the report states.

Experts from 38 states continuing their meeting with the federal public health service here today to prevent further spread of infantile paralysis by interstate travel, and developing methods of co-operating in study of causes and treatment of the disease. The delegates reported that 11,700 cases have been reported in the United States since January 1.

Care of what the health officers termed the "wreckage" of the epidemic, the crippled children who survive was discussed. Treatment of all victims in state institutions at state expense was recommended.

Dr. D. N. Roberg, of Oregon, urged that the public health service take steps to curb activities of medical imposters. He said they were gaining a strong foothold in the west.

Quacks thrive on epidemic, said Assistant Surgeon General Rucker, who presided today.

I. W. W. CHARGED WITH CAUSING TWO EXPLOSIONS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Biwabik, Minn., August 18.—An explosion which early today wrecked a boarding house in which were ten present, at the Biwabik mine located near here is laid by the authorities at the door of the I. W. W. No one was injured. The I. W. W. leaders, it is charged, had threatened the miners with death if they did not quit work. One member of the I. W. W. is held on suspicion.

Tony Dumont, who with his wife, two children and six boarders, occupied the house had been told by pickets to stop work if he did not want to "wake up in hell," but he continued at work. About midnight an explosion wrecked the rear portion of the house.

Matti Moilenes was arrested as the authorities were informed he had threatened to blow up the house. I. W. W. cards were found in his possession, officials say.

Another explosion which the authorities charge to the I. W. W. occurred near Hibbing. The entire front of the house of John Smith, hoisting engineer, was torn away. Smith, his wife and five children, were in the rear of the house and were unmjured.

Smith refused to strike recently when the I. W. W. agitators demanded it, and has received several threatening letters. No arrests have been made.

COPPER DISCOVERY BY STEFANSSON IS OF GREAT VALUE.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

New York, August 18.—The discovery by the Canadian Arctic expedition headed by Vilhjalmur Stefansson of a great field of native copper in the vicinity of Copper Mine river, in the neighborhood of Prince Albert Island, will prove of great value to the business world, says Dr. Chester A. Reels, of the American Museum of Natural History. Dr Reeds believes also that it will afford scientists an opportunity for displaying their ingenuity in finding an outlet from a region that is still unopened in a commercial science.

The work of the party which arrived in Nome, Alaska, on Tuesday, is expected to prove valuable in determining the direction of winds and the movement of tides in the polar region. Dr Reeds said this work might go a long way to prove or disprove the theory that an unknown continent exists in the great unexplored region north of Alaska and west and northwest of Greenland.

Drive of Russians Again Moves Forward After Brief Check

GERMANS LOSE HEAVILY

Repeated Attacks Against General Brussiloff's Line Hurled Back and Russians Advance at Several Points—French Renew Operations at Verdun, Germans Leave Fleury

The Russians temporarily held up in their Galician drive by heavy counter-attacks, have again to move forward.

Petrograd today announces that the Teutonic armies on this front have failed in their attempt to throw back Gen. Brussiloff's armies, sustaining heavy losses in the effort, and that the Russians are again advancing at several points.

In the war news from France the Verdun region again commands attention. The French have not been notably active there for the past few days but last night they resumed their offensive east of the Meuse and according to this afternoon's Paris bulletin, succeeded, which has long been sharply contested ground. An advance by the French was also scored in the Thiaumont sector, nearby.

After a brief period of delay the Germans have made their expected counter-move in the Maurespas sector on the Somme front where the French on Wednesday night reported substantial gains. Paris declares several attempts at counter-attacks were made on the new French positions here but that all failed under the French fire.

FOREST FIRES SWEEP OVER GREECE; QUEEN SOPHIE IS CHAGRINED.

Athens, Aug. 18.—The immense forest fires that have swept Greece during the past few weeks have been a source of particular chagrin to Queen Sophie, for the Queen of the Hellenes has been the leading figure in the conservation movement in Greece. The barren mountains that three thousand years ago were clad with verdure have been a text for the Queen in her crusade to teach the modern Greeks the need of preservation of the woods and streams. Each year Queen Sophie plants a tree with her own hands as an example to the women of Greece. But this year she had no luck, for during the night following this Arbor Day ceremoney a wandering shepherd passed with his flock and the newly planted tree was ignobly eaten by the sheep.

Clark former Republican congressional candidate, is again after that office; State Senator Louis E. Myers, Republican, is out for re-election, and Attorney Fred E Guthery, Democrat, is candidate for the court of appeals in the Third district. All four now reside in Marion, but were formerly of La Rue.

PENNSYLVANIA EXTENDS ORDER AGAINST PLAGUE.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Pittsburgh, Pa, Aug. 18.—A rigid quarantine against children under sixteen years old entering the state without medical certificates showing them to be free from symptoms of infantile paralysis was inaugurated throughout western Pennsylvania today. Beginning last midnight all trains from the north, south and west making their first stop in the state at Pittsburgh were met by representatives of the state department of health and all children without certificates were forced to turn back. Inspectors were also stationed at various points in Pennsylvania near the West Virginia and Ohio boundaries where railroads and interurban lines enter the state to enforce the quarantine.

MEXICO WILL GIVE FOREIGNERS SAME RIGHTS AS NATIVES.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Mexico City, Aug. 17.—An official decree issued today provides that all foreigners who intend to acquire public lands, mineral lands or water rights, or who seek permission to explore and exploit oil lands, timberlands or fisheries, must make formal declaration before the department of foreign relations that they renounce treaty rights and are to be considered to have only the same privilege as Mexicans. They are to incur the same obligations as Mexicans and to renounce the right to demand protection of their governments.

RAILROAD

Presidents Tell Wilson That 8-Hour Day Is Not Practical

AGREEMENT IS UNLIKELY

President Refuses to Accept Answer and Railroad Men Are Asked to Return Tomorrow for Another Conference—Want Regular Arbitration — Employes Would Accept Proposal

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, August 18.—Thirty-one railroad presidents today told President Wilson they stood by the decision of their managers committee that an eight-hour day was impracticable.

President Wilson refused to take "no" for an answer to his proposal that they accept the eight-hour day and asked them to return to the White House tomorrow with their managers for another conference.

For the 31 railroad presidents Mr. Wilson was told that while they could only speak for their own roads, they were disposed to accept the word of the managers committee that an eight-hour day was impracticable.

There were indications that the employes would vote to accept President Wilson's proposal of a basic eight-hour day and settlement of side issues by a special commission, but the hope for settlement was endangered by evidences that the railroad presidents, backing up their managers committee were not inclined to grant an eight hour day unless it be decided by arbitration and in any event might ask President Wilson for a little time in which to think over his proposition.

President Wilson abandoned today's cabinet meeting so he could devote all his time to the crucial railway situation.

The railroad presidents want arbitration under the Newlands act with two arbitrators for the roads, two for the men and two for the public. The disposition of many of them was said today to be to insist upon action of that character and not yield to President Wilson's plan for an eight-hour day unless it comes from an arbitration board.

Some of the presidents are said to feel that the public will support their offer to arbitrate everything in dispute. Some others, however, were of the opinion that if President Wilson chooses to exercise his power and refuses to press the men for arbitration it will be difficult for the railroad presidents to continue opposition to his plan.

During the morning President Wilson prepared a statement reviewing the negotiations and explaining why he chose the plan of settlement based on the eight-hour day.

The statement probably will be given out later.

W. L. Chambers of the federal mediators went to the men's hall at the request of the brotherhood officials to explain some of the features of the situation. He went into executive session with the heads of the four brotherhoods on the subject of overtime.

In the men's meeting the leading objection to President Wilson's plan was that if it were accepted without extra pay for overtime the men demanded the railroads would contend that the sole purpose of the men was to obtain more money and not to get the eight hour day.

While the railroad employes committee of 640 which this afternoon is casting secret ballots in President Wilson's plan to avert the threatened strike, the committee of railroad

Men of Newark

SMITH L. REDMAN, EX-SHERIFF AND FORMER COUNCILMAN, IS an example of the man, who, despite overwhelming odds and unfavorable conditions, rises above the men of his early surroundings, and gains for himself a place of prominence in the community. Mr. Redman was forced to make his way in the world. When he was only two years of age, Fortune ordained, by the death of his father, that as soon as his hands were large enough he should go to work to help support himself and his mother. He was born in Hopewell, Muskingum county, and before reaching the age of fifteen years, he was working with his elder brother in coal mines and cracking stone for the National road. During the short winter months, when the weather would permit, he attended the village school. On June 1, 1876, he came to Newark. He was then fifteen years of age, and at the beginning of April, 1877, began work in the wholesale grocery of Ashbrook & Company. This firm changed hands in 1904, and Mr. Redman entered the employ of the new proprietors, Tenney & Morgan. He remained with that firm until, having been elected to the office of Sheriff, he began his official duties in 1905. Between 1890 and 1900 he served two terms in the city council. He is a member of the B. P. O. E.

If Too Fat Get More Fresh Air

BE MODERATE IN YOUR DIET AND REDUCE YOUR WEIGHT WITH OIL OF KOREIN.

Lack of fresh air, it is said, weakens the oxygen-carrying power of the blood, the liver becomes sluggish, fat accumulates and the action of many of the vital organs are hindered thereby. The heart action becomes weak, work is an effort and the beauty of the figure is destroyed.

Fat put on by indoor life is unhealthy and if nature is not assisted in throwing it off by increasing the oxygen-carrying power of the blood, a serious case of obesity may result.

When you feel that you are getting too stout, take the matter in hand at once. Don't wait until your figure has become a joke and your health ruined through carrying around a burden of unsightly and unhealthy fat.

Spend as much time as you possibly can in the open air; breathe deeply, and get from W. A. Erman, Evans Drug Store or any druggist a box of oil of korein capsules; take one after each meal and one before retiring at night.

Weigh yourself every few days and keep up the treatment until you are down to normal. Oil of korein is absolutely harmless, is pleasant to take, helps the digestion and even a few days' treatment has been reported to show a noticeable reduction in weight.

MR. MOSSER FINDS PACE IS SET BY AIDS

NEW MANAGER SAYS HE IS KEPT ON JUMP TO KEEP UP WITH THEM.

Takes Up Farm Bureau Proposition Today and Assures Fair Board of Chamber's Co-operation.

The Newark Chamber of Commerce has started off with a rush under the leadership of its hustling manager, George H. Mosser, and already Mr. Mosser states that the organization has up for consideration between 15 and 20 propositions, several of which promise development in a few months.

The first meeting of the directors of the Chamber and the new manager is scheduled to be held Monday afternoon, at which time questions of policy will be outlined. Also pick out of the 100 and 1 things to do, the things that can be done in a timely way.

"I never met a more enthusiastic bunch of men, men who are working hard to make the organization a success," Mr. Mosser said today. "It is keeping me on the jump to keep up with them, and now I have engagements crowding each other for today and tomorrow."

James J. Hill, president of the County Fair Association was a visitor to the Chamber this morning to get acquainted with the new manager and to seek support of the organization for the Licking County Fair this fall.

Mr. Mosser assured him that it was the intention of the Chamber of Commerce to assist in making this year's fair the largest and best ever held here.

This afternoon Mr. Mosser and several other members, accompanied Homer J. Price, chairman of the Agricultural bureau on an auto trip into the country in the interest of establishing the Farm Bureau. This bureau is one of great importance to the city of Newark and the surrounding community and will be given considerable attention by the chamber.

Chairman George Hermann, of the Mercantile Bureau today called a meeting of his committee and other business men to meet at the Chamber of Commerce offices and go over and complete the report of the recent Farmer's and Merchants' picnic. Plans for the holding of next year's picnic will also be discussed at today's meeting.

The board of directors meeting Monday will be one of great importance as it will be the first step in getting together and outlining the policies and workings of the new organization.

berlain, "reopens the whole bill and there may be some senators who will want to renew their fight for amendments stricken out in conference."

President Wilson's veto message follows:

"To the House of Representatives:

"I have carefully considered the bill entitled: 'An Act Making Appropriations for the support of the army for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1917.' And now take the liberty of returning it with my objections to its approval.

"The bill constitutes an essential part of the legislation providing for the military establishment of the country and wisely and generously provides for the re-organization of the agencies of our national defense, and it is with genuine reluctance that I delay its becoming law by suggesting the elimination of one of the provisions which has been embodied in the very necessary and important revision of the articles of war which has been added to it.

"The existing articles of war are undoubtedly archaic. They have not undergone comprehensive revision for more than 100 years. They do not always furnish the means of meeting promptly and directly the needs of discipline under modern conditions, and many contingencies now frequently arise in the government of the military forces which were not contemplated when the present code was formulated. The relations of the government of the United States have greatly broadened within the 100 years. We now have insular possessions and national interests far away from our continental shores. Both the practice of arms and the theory of discipline have undergone many modern changes and a manifest need for such a revision of these articles as here presented has long existed. I, therefore, the more keenly regret to find in the proposed revision of the articles of war a provision to which I can not give my approval.

"The original act establishing the retired list of the army referred to the personnel therein included as only partially retired, and provided that a retired officer should be entitled to wear the uniform of his grade, should be borne on the army register, and should be subjected to the rules and articles of war, and to trial by general courtmartial for any breach of these articles. By the act of July 24, 1876, officers of the army on the retired list were specifically declared to constitute a part of the regular army, a provision which is found repeated in subsequent acts affecting the organization of the army; and other statutes enacted during this period made retired officers of the army available for certain classes of active duty, in time of peace with their consent, and in time of war without their consent. By the recently enacted national defense act, the authority of the president over retired officers has been further extended so as to make them subject to his call in time of war for any kind of duty without any restriction whatever. Courts and attorneys-general have in a long line of decisions held that officers of the army on the retired list hold public office.

"It thus appears that both the legislative and judicial branches have drawn a sharp distinction in status between retired officers, who are regarded and governed at all times as an effective reserve of skilled and experienced officers and a potential source of military strength and mere pensioners, from whom no further military service is expected. Officers on the retired list of the army are officers of the army, members of the military establishment distinguished by their long service, and, as such, examples, of discipline to the officers and men in the active army. Moreover, they wear the uniform of the army, their education and service hold them out as persons especially qualified in military matters to represent the spirit of the military establishment and they are subject to active duty in time of national emergency by the mere order of the commander-in-chief."

LAW PROVIDES EDUCATION FOR ALL CHILDREN

To inform parents, guardians and employers of children of the provisions of Ohio statutes concerning the education of children, Superintendent Wilson Hawkins today issued the following statement regarding the laws:

The Compulsory education law of Ohio provides:

That every boy between the ages of 8 and 15 years and every girl between the ages of 8 and 16 years, must attend school.

That every boy between the ages of 15 and 16 years not engaged in some regular employment must attend school.

That such attendance must begin the first week of the school term and continue for the full time that the school attended is in session.

That no person or corporation shall employ any child under 15 years of age in any business whatever during any of the hours when the public schools are in session.

That no boy under 16 years of age and no girl under 18 years shall be employed, unless such child presents an Age and Schooling Certificate approved by the Superintendent of the Public Schools.

That no boy is entitled to an Age and Schooling Certificate until he is 15 years of age and has passed a satisfactory sixth grade test and no girl until she is 16 years of age and has passed a satisfactory seventh grade test.

That any boy between the ages of 15 and 16 who ceases to work, must return to school within two weeks, unless he secures other employment within such time.

Parents and others are requested to comply with the above laws. The Truant Officer is required by law to enforce them and should not be criticised for doing his sworn duty. It is the intent of the Superintendent of Schools to insist upon their enforcement, for the reason that he believes that every child is entitled to the rudiments of an education. Citizens who are aware of children who are not in attendance at school will confer a favor by reporting their names to the Superintendent of Schools, or to the Truant Officer.

WELLS IS BURNED WHEN HE SOUGHT SOURCE OF SMOKE.

George Wells, 79 Columbia street, late yesterday afternoon detected smoke pouring forth from a clothes closet at his home. He opened the door in search of the cause of the smoke—and found it.

A sheet of flames struck him in the face badly scorching him. An alarm was sent into central fire headquarters and in a few minutes the firemen were on the scene. The blaze was quickly extinguished by the use of chemicals. The loss was small.

The burns suffered by Wells were such that it was necessary to seek medical services.

paralysis is the slow progress of treatment of its victims,' said Dr. Rucker. "Parents become discouraged, leave good physicians and go to quacks who advertise 'We Cure Paralysis.' They go from quack to quack until their resources and chances of improving the child are gone."

A report of a conference committee recommending a system of uniform collection and dissemination of statistical information regarding paralysis was adopted. Uniform forms and records were approved which will give a complete record of every paralysis case in every state and county of the country. It is proposed that these reports will be available both to the public health service and all state officers, to compile a complete record of the disease in this country since 1910.

32 DEATHS IN GOTHAM.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

New York, August 18.—The health department reported only a slight change in the epidemic of infantile paralysis today. New cases during the last 24 hours numbered 125 and deaths 32 as against 121 cases and 32 deaths yesterday.

Although the city health commissioner does not believe the schools will be opened before September 25, teachers employed by the New York department of education will be required to report for duty on the usual dates, from September 6 to September 8. The president of the board of education announced today that he intended to have the teachers ready to open the schools at the earliest date consistent with safety in view of the epidemic of infantile paralysis which has caused a postponement of the opening.

Several hundred retail grocers and meat dealers will be guests of the city at that time.

CINCINNATI MASONS ONCE MET IN TAVERN; OWN VALUABLE HOME.

Cincinnati, O., Aug. 18. — "The oldest grand chartered lodge in the state," is the distinction of N. C. Harmony Masonic Lodge of Cincinnati. Arrangements for the celebration on September 8 of the 125th, anniversary of the granting of a charter by the grand lodge have been completed by committeemen.

The first meetings of the lodge were held in the home of a man who was not a Mason. Later they were held in an old tavern. By a provision of the will of William McMillan the lodge came into possession of a lot at the northeast corner of Third and Walnut streets. The present Masonic Temple is the third building to be erected on the site and is the property of the lodge.

The anniversary celebration will include a banquet at a local hotel. The speakers will include a representative of the lodge at Marietta, which is the oldest in the state, having been organized by continental army soldiers in 1776, although N. C. Harmony Lodge preceded it in obtaining a charter. Other speakers will be Grand Master Frank H. Marquis of Mansfield, Deputy Grand Master Joel C. Clore of Cincinnati, Senior Grand Warden H. M. Haggelbarger of Akron, Grand Secretary J. H. Bromwell of Cincinnati, District Lecturer Harry S. Johnson of Cincinnati, Mayor George Puchta of Cincinnati and J. C. Leggett of Ripley.

The blind population of the United States in 1910 numbered 57,272. Blindness is less common in America than in most other countries. The total number of blind persons in the world is roughly estimated at 2,390,000.

KIDS' PICNIC WAS SUCCESS; DANCING OF LASS WAS FEATURE

The 350 youngsters who attended the picnic at Buckeye Lake yesterday as the guests of the Newark Auto club returned home last evening a tired but happy bunch. Not a single accident marred the pleasure of the day and everything moved off like clock work.

After the picnic dinner games and contests were indulged in and prizes were given for every event. One of the big hits was the wrestling exhibition staged by Teuscher Brothers. The two little fellows are pupils of Paul Bowser, champion middleweight wrestler of the world, and who took especial pains with them. The boys took on several of the picnic youngsters and one was thrown by a boy present who outweighed the Teuscher boy by 35 pounds and was much older also. The big crowd of children shouted with glee and the wrestling match proved an enjoyable affair.

Little Ruth Ludwig gave an exhibition of fancy dancing in the Buckeye pavillion, and it was certainly an enjoyable feature. Ruth is the daughter of Mrs. Atha Ludwig and is only seven years of age. She dances like a fairy and would rather do that than anything on earth. It is just like playing for her and she would be dancing all the time if her mother would let her. She danced in costume and was applauded heartily by the hundreds who watched her go through the intricate steps.

The girls were in charge of Miss Mabel Jones of this city, assisted by Miss Leontine Moore, and they saw to it that the children had a good time. Rev. Don Tullis had charge of the boys and he was kept busy throughout the afternoon.

Following were the winners and the prizes given:

Girls' free-for-all 100-yd. dash—Anna Mae Bailey and Grace Darby. Divided prize. One big birthday cake.

Girls' sack race—Won by Mary Brady. Middie blouse.

Boys' 100-yd. dash—Won by Ernest Snyder. Prize pair roller skates.

Boys' tug of war—Won by side captained by John Carley. Prize to captain, one complete baseball suit.

Sack race for girls, 12 to 14 years of age—Won by Florence Nealey Prize, suit case.

Girls' hop—Won by Katherine Anderson and Cecelia Tuley. Prizes, a suit case and a silk hair ribbon.

Boys' wrestling match—Won by Walter Smith. Prize, baseball.

Small boys' wrestling match—Prize awarded to Kenneth Tuscher Suit case.

Other prizes were given for minor events but no records were kept.

Those contributing prizes were as follows: J. M. Mitchell, baseball suit; The Mazey Co., hair ribbons; A. Schiff, middy blouse; The Krieg-Crane Co., roller skates; New King Co., tennis shoes; Meyer & Lindorf, middy blouse; J. C. Jones Co., boy's knife; Roe-Emerson, three children's suit cases; T. L. Davies, middy blouse; T. M. Edmiston, baseball bat; Evans Drug Store, bottle of perfume; Mrs. Jessie Jones, a large fancy decorated cake

At 3:30 o'clock the children were given a luncheon of sandwiches, pickles, cakes, oranges, bananas and lemonade and were then marched past a long table on which were 350 large slices of watermelon, and how the kiddies did enjoy it. The machines were then loaded, members of the committee waiting until the last child left the park.

It took a great deal of work to look after the children and get the luncheons ready and the committee desires to thank all who so kindly participated, especially the following, who were at the park early and gave nearly all of their time to making the picnic a success: Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Orr, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Reese and daughter Esther, Miss Mabel Jones, Miss Bess Kear, Miss Leontine Moore, Mrs. Mary Miller, Probation Officer John Dwyer, F. M. B. Windle, James Richter, Wallace Davidson, Col. W. C. Wells, Rev. Don Tullis, Smith Redman, Pat Flanigan, Ben Montgomery, A. H. Rickert, Dick Curry, W. H. Loller and Frank Bader.

The Auto club committe in charge of the picnic was Dr. J. T. Lewis, chairman; M. J. Reese, Rev. Don Tullis, Edward Kibler, Sr., and Harry D. Hale.

INSURANCE MEN WILL GET CHARTER IN SEPTEMBER.

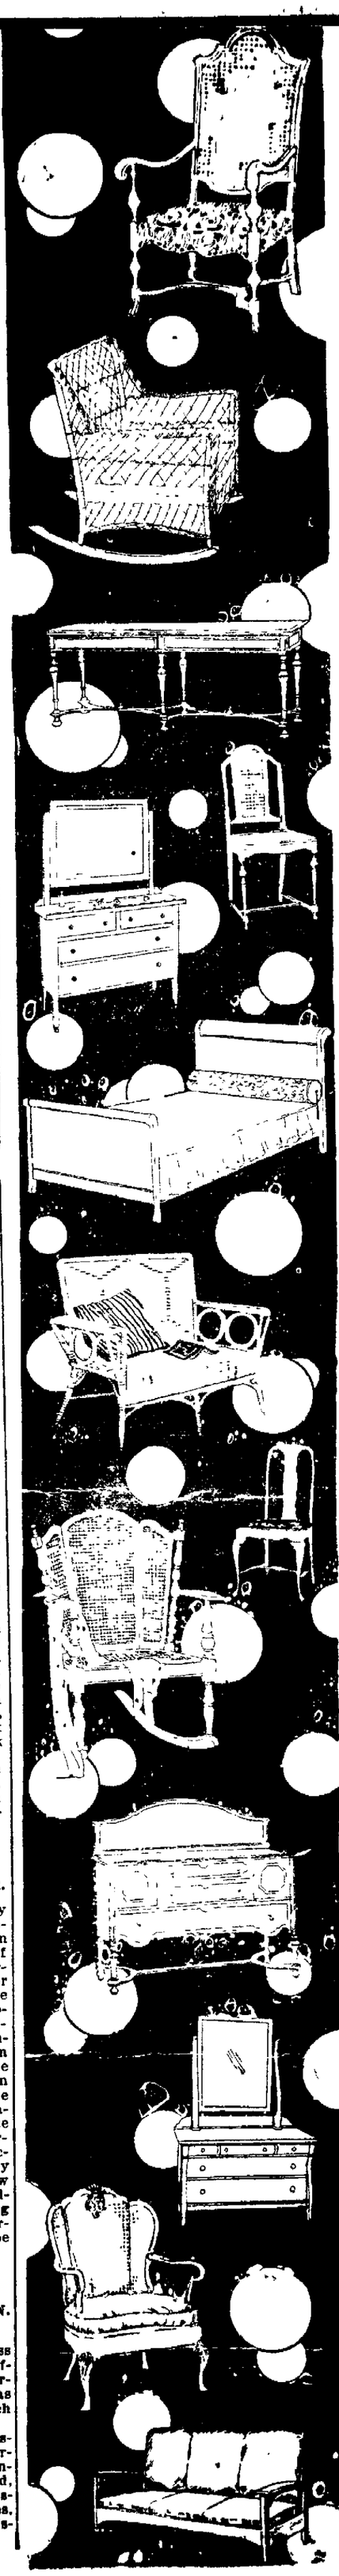

Members of the Licking County Life Insurance Underwriters' Association have received notification from the National Organization of Life Underwriters that the local organization will be granted a charter in September. The purpose of the organization is to acquaint the public with insurance rules and the advantages and purposes of local insurance organization. Insurance men misrepresenting the business will be disclosed by the organization when such are found, and an effort will be made to apprehend misrepresentation. George Hayden, insurance agent, is president of the local organization, and J. G. Fulton is secretary. Cities all over the country are manifesting interest in the new movement, and it is rapidly spreading. It is expected that before long all cities, where considerable insurance business is transacted, will be members.

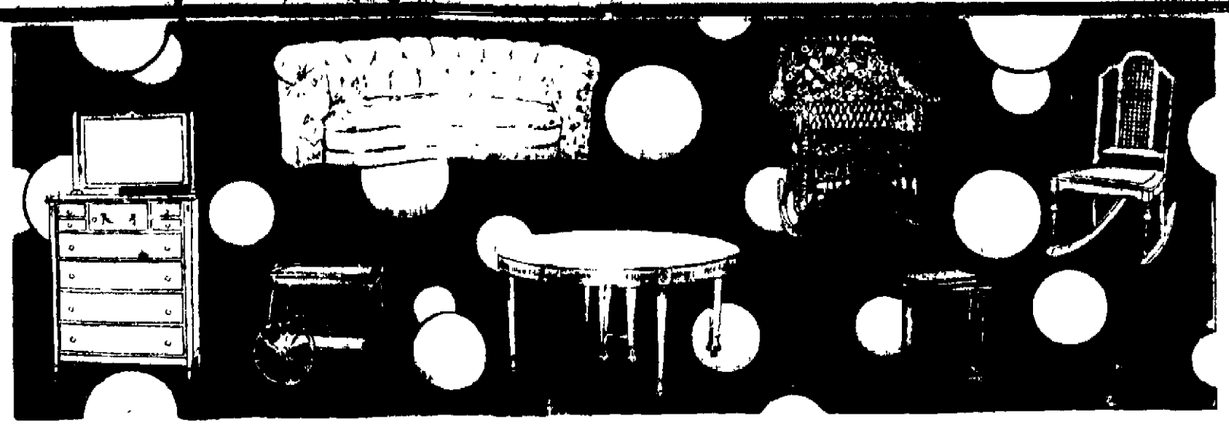

NORWAY OBJECTS TO ARMED VESSELS AS MERCHANTMEN.

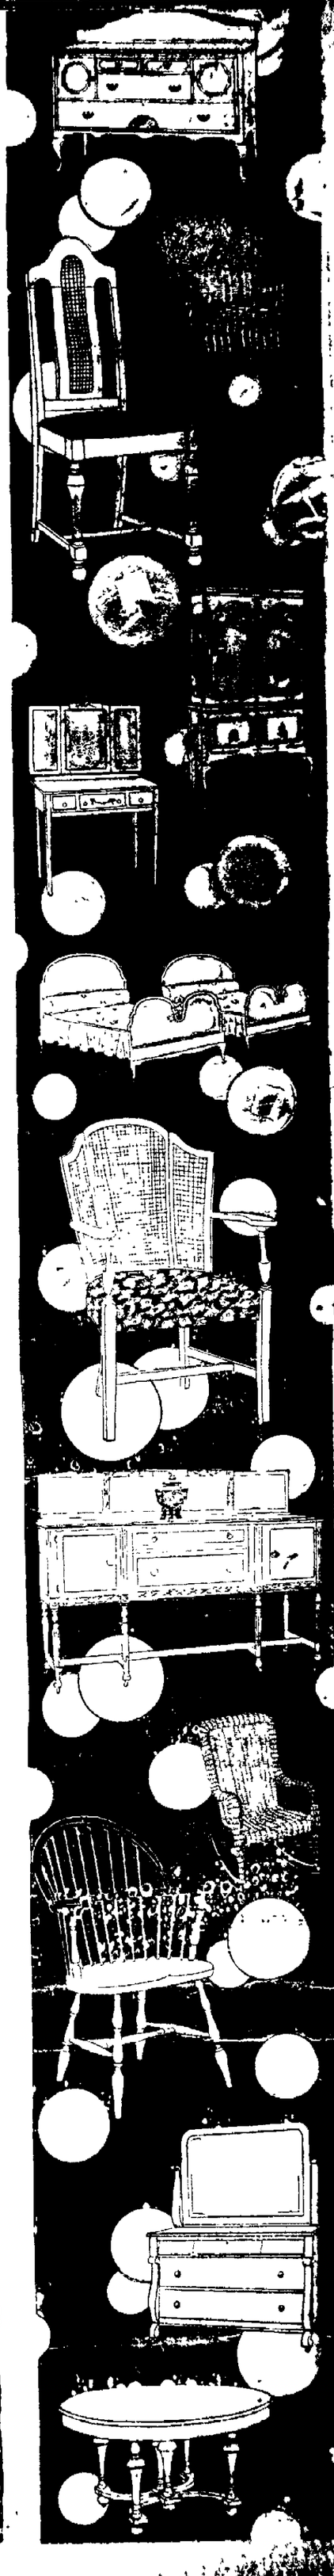

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Berlin, August 18.—(By wireless to Sayville.)—Norway has taken official action regarding armed merchantmen, according to an Overseas News Agency message today, which says:

"The Norwegian minister of justice has instructed the police in Norwegian ports to find out whether incoming merchantmen are armed and, in case they are, to order an investigation by the military authorities, before giving such vessels permission to leave."

ESTABLISHED IN 1820

Entered as Second Class Matter March 10, 1882, at the postoffice at Newark, Ohio, under the Act of March 4, 1879.

It is never a good plan to swap horses while crossing a stream of water—Abraham Lincoln.

Help Mr. Mosser.

The new Chamber of Commerce is starting under auspicious circumstances. The board of directors made up of some of the leading men of the community has taken hold of the work with a will and with enthusiasm and intelligence. The board has engaged a talented and experienced manager in the person of George H. Mosser, who has made a splendid record in Pennsylvania, and Mr. Mosser created a splendid impression at the membership meeting on Wednesday evening.

There is abundant work to do and it will require team effort to bring about the desired result. Newark has every natural advantage and it should grow into a larger and more prosperous city. It can and will grow and prosper if the people of this community get behind Manager Mosser and push as one man.

A Newark man returned yesterday from Duluth where he visited for several days. In that time he found not a single "knocker." Every citizen is a booster for Duluth. That's the reason Duluth is forging ahead so rapidly. If Newark people will stop their useless criticism and will start boosting there is no limit to the advancement this old town will make. Let all of us get behind Mr. Mosser and help him and the Chamber of Commerce in the commendable work that is now being undertaken.

Kiddies' Picnic.

Three hundred little children enjoyed themselves to the utmost yesterday, thanks to the Newark Auto Club and kind hearted people who enthusiastically joined in the preparation and execution of the plans for the kiddies picnic.

It was a happy thought that set on foot the plan which was so successfully carried out yesterday when about seventy automobiles carried the youngsters to and from Buckeye Lake. Not a thing was left undone. The children had the time of their lives—a delightful ride over the new pikes, an enjoyable boat ride, plenty to eat with an abundance of lemonade, ice cream, peanuts and chewing gum.

It was the first time many of the children had ever ridden in an automobile, the first time many had ever visited Buckeye Lake and strange as it may seem the very first time some of them had ever been in the country. One little fellow seeing a haystack for the first time inquired what it was and a tiny little girl expressed surprise and joy at the sight of a flock of sheep.

The children had a happy day but the "big brothers" who catered to them at yesterday's outing enjoyed the event fully as much as did the kiddies. The children's picnic ought to be made an annual affair but next year 500 instead of 300 should constitute the party.

Daily History Class—Aug. 18.

1788—General Washington took informal leave of the victorious colonial army at Newburg, N. Y.

1807—Charles Francis Adams, United States minister to England during the civil war, born; died 1886.

1914—Brussels, Belgium, was abandoned by King Albert and his cabinet.

1915—Allies captured Turkish trenches on the Gallipoli pennisula, near Suvla bay.

ASTRONOMICAL EVENTS.

About 9 p. m. eight constellations appear close to the horizon from the northwest around south and east to the north. Planets rise, p. m., Venus, Mercury, Mars; a. m., Saturn, Jupiter.

Good Roads and Prosperity.

The relation between the above two factors is closer than some people think. The subject is suggested by the observations given us of a man who has travelled about the country considerably this summer, and observed social and economic conditions. He spoke particularly of one section with which he was formerly familiar, and which some years ago was noteworthy for agricultural prosperity and had some vogue as a summer resort.

This summer the farms seemed less well cultivated than formerly. Where there was once an abundance of field crops, now more land was given over to mere pasturage. There were a good many vacant houses.

From nearly all his informants he got the impression that the condition of the roads had something to do with it. It appears that in this section little has been done at highway improvement. In a belated way, a few of the main lines of travel have now been improved. But the cross country roads are almost in a state of nature. In dry weather they are heaps of pulverized dust, in wet weather sloughs, where an automobile would go in almost to the hubs.

Apparently the people who used to come for summer rest to this section now own automobiles. They have become disgusted with a region that gives them so unsatisfactory a chance to use their motors. The farmers have to haul produce to the railroads over rough and rutty roads that often are nearly impassable. Even when the weather is favorable the trucking takes a long time. At the present high cost of farm help, it is a big charge on their production.

There is a lesson in this for all who begrudge highway taxes. A section that is not improving its roads as rapidly as the rest of the country is getting to be as badly off as a district without any railroads.

Judge Ben. B. Lindsey, of Denver, Colorado, famous as a Juvenile Court Judge, will support President Wilson for re-election. Judge Lindsey is a former Republican. He was delegate to the Republican convention at Chicago in 1912, and left that convention with the other delegates—supporters of Theodore Roosevelt—who formed the Progressive party. Judge Lindsey is known to many Newark people as he lectured at the Memorial Auditorium a few years ago.

The fact that on the camping trip the boys can help wipe dishes for their vigorous and athletic girl friends, does not prove that at home they could assist their tired mothers in the same way.

Peace, prosperity and constructive legislation enjoyed under the Wilson administration constitute an argument that Mr. Hughes can not answer.

Another excellent way to celebrate Fried Chicken Day September 1 is with a dinner of creamed salt fish and dried kidney beans.

Both parties indignantly denounce extravagant appropriations when made by their opponents.

To Move Real Estate.

Many people who would like to dispose of houses or farms, worth thousands of dollars, will sometimes hesitate about the few cents it would cost to advertise them well in the newspapers. They depend on what chance opportunities may come to them, and in the end may sacrifice hundreds of dollars on their property.

There are a host of people who are always on the look out for a chance to buy real estate. They are always watching for favorable chances, whether for their own occupancy, or to speculate on it. Putting an ad in the For Sale column of a newspaper, puts a would be seller in touch with a wide circle of people who want to buy. These people make it a point to read all the real estate advertising they can find in a number of newspapers, and it is worth while to attract their attention.

A well written notice describing a piece of property attracts as many readers as anything in the paper. It will attract hundreds of possible buyers where an agent would be able to interest only a few. It is the cheapest and most profitable way to sell real estate.

Spirit of the Press

Guard Mobilization.

Several Southern states have as yet been able to contribute no troops to the mobilization of the National Guard at the border; few states have their full quota of the guard in readiness, and recruiting is going on slowly as in the regular army. What is being done about this state of affairs? and what does the administration propose to do about it? The late Charles Kline made one of his characters sum up of the present situation: "There's altogether too much talking and not enough being said." Rochester Post Express.

The Wonder Industry.

In 1906 there were 48,000 automobiles in the United States. This year there are 2,445,664. In registration fees the owners of cars have paid this year $18,245,713. In other words, the American people pay nearly as much today for automobile licenses as they paid for all the automobiles in service 10 years ago.—New York Evening Mail.

A Harder Task.

Sir Edward Grey, British secretary for Foreign affairs, says the allies are gaining confidence every week. But to get anywhere they will have to gain ground as well as confidence.—Arkansas Gazette.

Mexico.

The report that 4,000 Mexican troops have been withdrawn from the Southern States and sent to Chihuahua looks as though the de facto government were actually disposed to make an effort to find Villa. The difficulty of dealing with Carranza for months has been that he was much more disposed to menace our punitive expedition than to do its work for it, and enable it to retire. But since President Wilson called the National Guard to the frontier Mr. Carranza's mental operations have improved greatly, and he is now anxious, probably, to run down Villa.—Philadelphia Record.

German and American Roads.

German railways are supposed to be not far from perfection, so far as safety is concerned, but some figures given by a correspondent of The Railway Age Gazette go to show that American roads now surpass them, at least as regards trainmen. Out of every 100 such employes in 1911 on German lines 4.2 were killed, 5 in 1912 and 5.7 in 1913. On American roads during the same years the figures were 5.1, 4.7 and 3.5. From this it appears that, while American railroads were becoming steadily safer for trainmen, those of Germany were becoming progressively more dangerous. Probably the confusion of war times has accelerated this tendency in Germany, while in this country the "Safety First" movement has made such headway that the showing of 1916 will doubtless be much more favorable than that for 1913, which was already much better than Germany's. Such figures do not bear out the contention of trainmen that their occupation is one of great hazards.—Philadelphia Record.

Russian women predominate among foreign born students of their sex in Paris.

Editor Chooses Wilson.

With accustomed accuracy and candor the editor of the Springfield "Republican," of Springfield, Mass., has reviewed the public careers of Woodrow Wilson and Charles E. Hughes with the earnest purpose of deciding upon the editorial policy of that newspaper in the present campaign.

The "Republican" is one of the most ably edited and famous newspapers in America. Its editor has waited in the present campaign to hear both candidates before taking sides.

Like a candid, broad-minded publicist he yields that measure of praise to Mr. Hughes he thinks his public acts must claim, but like a true patriot he announces his allegiance to the country's present policies, and pledges his splendid talents henceforth to the re-election of Woodrow Wilson.

The Republican's editorial, making President Wilson the candidate of its choice, has already become a notable bit of literature in the campaign. It says in part:

Mr. Wilson, in the face of difficulties and criticism such as have confronted no president since Lincoln, has accomplished much. To declare his foreign policy futile is idle. The conclusive answer is contained in the bitter protests of the radical faction in Germany that the German submarines have been caught "in a net of notes." The outstanding fact is that Mr. Wilson, without bringing the United States into war, has forced a recognition of neutral right.

With relation to Mexico, Mr. Wilson has grasped the underlying principle that we shall not have a permanently peaceful neighbor to the south of us until the most patent wrongs under which the masses of the Mexican people have suffered are righted through their own efforts. The recognition of this principle in the long run means the minimum of evil to this country from the Mexican problem. It is to Mr. Wilson's everlasting credit that in spite of difficulties, discouragements, and possibly of incidental mistakes, he has not wavered in his endeavor to apply this principle to the changing circumstances of the times.

Much is made, and very properly, of the fact that Mr. Hughes, if elected, would take office free from hampering pledges. But if free from pledges, he is not free from obligations. Having courted and gained the support of Col. Roosevelt, it would be impossible for Mr. Hughes, as a matter of practical politics, to sign a treaty with Colombia redressing the wrongs done that nation when Col. Roosevelt "seized" the canal zone. Mr Roosevelt has angrily and bitterly opposed such action on the part of our government, correctly estimating that it would be a repudiation of his course and a personal humiliation to him. Consequently, for Mr. Hughes to support such a treaty would be to invite an experience similar to that which befell Mr. Taft. Yet adjustment of Colombia's wrongs is important for the United States, not merely as a matter of national honor, but as a matter of dollars and cents in our commercial dealings with all Latin America, where sympathy could be gained to so large a degree by no other one act.

Under Mr. Wilson's leadership the Democratic party is today a better instrument of progressive government than in a generation, if not in its entire history, and, what is more to the point, a better instrument, in the opinion of this paper, than the Republican party promises at this moment to become under Mr. Hughes. Various episodes have emphasized the fact that the Democratic party has had comparatively few outstanding leaders of national reputation. But it is one of the chief items of Mr. Wilson's leadership that during his term progressive and enlightened Democrats such as Newton D. Baker, secretary of war, have been brought more and more to the front while the reactionaries have been sent more and more to the rear. The party has been in training and it has gained. But in spite of any comparative lack of leaders, the Democrats meeting in caucus, whenever caucus has been necessary, have threshed things out and determined to support, one after another, a long series of soundly constructive legislative measures of historic importance—notable among them the income tax, the banking and currency act, the rural credits act, the child labor bill, the federal unemployment service, the humanitarian features of the seamen's act and the provision for vocational training for civil life while in the army. To achieve such a record without leaders, if it were literally true that the Democrats had had no leaders, would be in itself a triumph of democracy and a better promise than any amount of leadership stamped with the political conceptions of Boies Penrose.

Admirable as was Mr. Hughes's record at Albany, there can be no definite assurance that he would be able to force Penrose and others of that ilk to a back seat in the degree to which Mr. Wilson has revitalized the democracy. Mr. Hughes would make a good President; it was a matter of national good fortune that he was nominated at Chicago. But Mr. Wilson, by reason of his exceptional experience in office and his now overwhelmingly evident leadership of his party along progressive lines, is, in the opinion of "The Republican," better fitted to meet the problems of foreign relations and social evolution, in the broadest sense, which the next four years hold in store.

The Cry of Extravagance.

(Philadelphia Record.)

Charles Evans Hughes' wild denunciation of the Wilson Administration for extravagance has not unnaturally directed attention to his own record in such matters and brought out the interesting fact that his Administration as Governor of New York was the most extravagant ever known in that state. The official figures, as compiled by The World, show that during the four years previous to Mr. Hughes the total appropriations made by the legislature and signed by the Governor aggregated $112,318,126.15. During the four years of Mr. Hughes the total appropriations made by the legislature and signed by the Governor aggregated $150,393,066.53. This was an increase of $38,074,940.38, or nearly $10,000,000 a year. Here in Pennsylvania we would call that going some.

When Mr. Hughes cries out about the increasing appropriations made by the Federal Government he slurs over the fact that these rising expenses are principally due to the heavy demands of the army and navy and that the Republicans, headed by the Colonel, "Gussie" Gardner and others, have been the loudest in clamoring for enormous expenditures in behalf of national preparedness. If we are to have a larger army and an adequate navy they must be paid for, and the bills will be tremendous whether under a Republican or a Democratic Administration. If Mr. Hughes shall be elected President the national appropriations will keep right on increasing, just as they have under President Wilson, or else the country must abandon the policy of putting itself in a state of preparation for a possible enemy.

Mr. Hughes has much to say about "pork" in Congressional appropriations. Nobody can defend the log-rolling methods pursued at Washington, but these are not peculiar to Democrats. They originated many years ago in Republican extravagance, and the only serious check ever placed upon them was put there by Democrats. When a Democratic Senate and House abandoned the old G. O. P. fashion of rushing through the Rivers and Harbor bill, making specific appropriations for indefensible jobs, and substituted for it the plan of making a lump appropriation, the expenditure of which was left to the discretion of army engineers, they instituted a mighty reform. In the treatment of building projects the Democrats have also sought to make the expenditure fit the needs of the locality.

It shows Mr. Hughes' narrow partisanship that he strives to make it appear that the Democrats, instead of the vicious system originated by his own party, are responsible for big Congressional appropriations. This may go down with the yokels in North Dakota and Montana, but people who are familiar with the facts will not be greatly impressed with his burning zeal to swing the ax of reform and lop off long-standing abuses. It is a trick to catch votes, and not a very honest one, either.

That the first hospitals for the insane of which history or tradition makes mention were the sacred temples in Egypt? In these, it is said, the disease was mitigated by agreeable impressions received through the senses, and by a system resembling and rivaling the highest development of moral treatment now practiced. Asylums, properly so called, date from the commencement of the present century. A gradual but great revolution has taken place in the views of psychologists as to the provisions and requirements for the insane during seclusion. As a result of this change, asylums especially for the wealthy classes, are assimilated in their arrangements to ordinary dwelling-houses.

Lippincott-Rumsey.

A pretty mid-summer wedding marked by the greatest simplicity was that of Miss Hazel Lippincott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lippincott and Mr. Louys Rumsey, which was solemnized at the First Presbyterian church Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Chandler Tucker sang "Because I Love You Dear," and the organist Miss Lenora Phillips played the wedding march. The bridesmaids walkod down the four different aisles as the bride and bridegroom, attended by the best man and maid of honor marched down the center aisle. They were preceded by little Mary Gertrude Sachs, as flower girl.

The color arrangements throughout the entire decorations were yellow and white. Great clusters of golden glow adorned the altar, and the bridesmaids, Misses Frances Davis, Edna Streit, Mabel Alward and Lucille Satterfield, wore dainty frocks of white with yellow flowers, and carried gilt baskets caught with yellow maline bows and filled with golden glow.

The little flower girl wore a frock of white with a yellow maline sash, and hair ribbon and carried a basket of yellow flowers. The bride was attended by her maid, Miss Katherine Sachs, who wore a dress of white net bound with satin ribbon, and the bridal gown was of white embroidered organdie with a great bow of white satin ribbon. Both the maid of honor and bride wore corsage bouquets of sunburst roses. The best man was Mr. William Huffman of Stryker, O. The ring service was read by Rev. Calvin Hazlett.

An informal reception followed the marriage service in the church parlors where the colors of yellow and white were used.

Later dinner was served the bridal party at the Mauger Hotel at Buckeye Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Rumsey will leave in a few days for their future home in Ames, Ia., where Mr. Rumsey is supervisor of chemistry in the Iowa State College. The bride is well known in Newark, is popular with the members of her circle, and has met with success as an artist in china painting.

Miss Valeria Pickering was the honor guest at a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. Lawrence Flohr at her home in Hudson avenue Thursday evening. Miss Pickering will be an October bride, when her marriage to Mr. Paul Marshall of Carnegie, Pa., will take place.

The Flohr home was lavishly arranged with hearts, and at the end of a cob web which was strung over the house were found the gifts for the bride to be. A dainty luncheon was served to about thirty guests. A number of events have been planned for Miss Pickering's honor this month.

Preventing Freckles.

Next to sunburn, many girls consider freckles the most disfiguring blemish, and yet I know several girls whose freckles gives them a fascinating tomboyish charm. These are only rare cases however, and most of us should try to prevent freckles from coming too thickly.

There is a freckle cream which has been "weighed in the balance" and has not been found wanting in its qualities as a remedy for freckles. Thoroughly cleanse the face and apply this cream generously to the skin morning and night. It contains the following ingredients.

Patrolum, one ounce av.; Lanolin (anhydrous) one ounce av.; Hydrogen peroxide, one fluid ounce; acetic acid, one fluid dram.

Freckles usually appear on delicate skins, and this fact makes the problem of removing them more difficult, for anything strong enough to bleach the skin makes it more susceptible. Protection, therefore, is the most necessary part of the treatment.

Another excellent remedy for freckles is buttermilk. Bathe the face frequently with buttermilk, whether you have freckles or not. It is softening and bleaches the skin, without causing the slightest irritation.

There are many more summer girl secrets which I shall make known to you at some future time, but for your own sake as well as for the sake of your fellow beings, strive your utmost to appear attractive in hot weather. Do not allow your complexion to resemble a wrinkled, age-browned piece of parchment. Make it rival the rose and the lily in texture and coloring.

Every Day Etiquette

"When a maid opens the door, should you hand her your card in asking for the lady you are calling on, or only give your name and leave your card when you are going?" inquired Henry.

"If you are a frequent caller, it is not necessary to give your card to the maid when she opens the door as she will know whom to announce to her mistress. Under other circumstances, you should hand your card to her when she opens the door," said uncle John.

Our Boys and Girls

Eye-strain is the main cause of nervousness and headache. That much most mothers know.

But do they know that eye-strain is in many cases at the bottom of other troubles—stomach disorders, irritability, inability to progress in school?

The near sighted child is soonest discovered. He holds his book too close to his eyes; he must sit near the blackboard at school. But the far-sighted child, the astigmatic child, may suffer a long time before the trouble is suspected. See that the eyes receive only the best treatment.

A baby's nerves are much more delicate and sensitive, in proportion to his size, then those or a grown person, and the foundation of an adult life of acute suffering is often thoughtlessly laid out for him while he is as yet too young and helpless to protect himself.

Heedless slamming of doors, boisterous talk or laughter, and, in fact, sudden or unexpected demonstrations of any sort are all disturbing to the baby's nervous system, and all produce ill-effects that are more or less lasting.

Many little children are rendered nervous and irritable nowadays by too great a number and diversity of toys. The fewer things a baby has to play with the better, and there should be nothing that is not of the simplest construction.

Judge T. B. Fulton will hear the arguments for a change of venue in the James "Bud" Werts murder trial, early in September. Should the motion be allowed which has been filed by Werts' attorneys, then the judge sitting on same would name the county in which the trial would be held, and it would probably be one of the adjoining counties to the Licking line.

Granville

[Special to The Advocate]

Granville, Aug. 18.—The village seems to be languishing, and newspaper correspondents have fallen upon evil days. The most determined optimism finds little to enjoy in the situation. "Bets are off" on the Broadway paving proposition, for all attempts to complete it "within the month" have been abandoned. The O. E. company seems to be the chief factor in delaying the work, and a meeting of the council has been called for tonight. It is to be hoped that the city fathers are about tired of empty promises from that enterprising corporation. The citizens certainly have long ago grown weary.

Mubert Hopkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hopkins who went to Chicago a week ago to visit friends, was made leader of the Lincoln Boy Scouts Camp for two weeks, after which he will return to Chicago for the remainder of the vacation.

Mrs. William Showman of North street has gone to Mansfield for a visit with friends and relatives for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stuart with their little son, are again at their home in Burg street after a month's visit with relatives and friends in Marysville, Cleveland and Cincinnati.

The old Clemons livery stable in North Prospect street, one of the most ancient of the village landmarks, will soon be but a memory in the minds of thousands of former residents and students, who always were well served with the handsomest and shiniest of carriages and the most mettlesome as well as the safest of well groomed horses—long before the age of gasoline. It is now the property of Jacob Warner who will erect a modern two-story garage on the old site this fall.

Mr. and Mrs S. P. Tresize have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. Effie T. Christy in Akron. Mr. Tresize has returned. Mrs. Tresize remaining for a longer time.

Miss Charlotte Clarke has resumed her duties at the Fanny Doane Home after a vacation spent with friends in the East.

Rev. Franklin Sweet of Minneapolis, Minn., has been spending a fortnight of his vacation in Granville as guest of his mother-in-law, Mrs. George Stevens, and preaching in Dayton, his native city, on Sundays. Mr. Sweet who graduated from Denison in '00, and has spent the past seven years in Minneapolis, as pastor of the Calvary Baptist church is enthusiastic over this city of his adoption, claiming that it has all the beauty of Detroit, the aggressiveness of Chicago, the moral and intellectual idealism of New England. Mr. Sweet who was called upon to speak at the mid-week prayer service in the Baptist church last evening, spoke feelingly of the memories clustering about this village; of his experiences in college and of the ideals which have influenced him and which he hopes to retain unfarnished, through life. There was uplift and inspiration in his brief talk. Mrs. Sweet, who was Miss Mary Stevens, is at the family cottage at Northport, Mich. for the summer, with the children.

Members of the Fortnightly club are requested to keep in mind the mid-summer meeting to be held next Tuesday evening, August [illegible] at the home of Mrs. Fred Metcalfe in Broadway. A full attendance is desired as there is much important business to transact. The program committee request that any who have changed their plans in regard to next year's work, will notify the committee promptly. Meeting at 7 o'clock.

Rev. and Mrs. J. T. Newell of Bloomington, Ind., formerly of Granville, were honor guests on Thursday at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. David Owen on Burg street, three miles north of Granville.

Mrs George Walker of Cincinnati, guest of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Williams in Elm street, was a luncheon guest at the Moundbuilders Country club yesterday.

The Kiddies Picnic.

Editor of the Advocate.

I can not claim that the taking of those children to Buckeye Lake in automobiles is a harbinger of the Millenium; but it is an event which makes a very bright page in the history of Newark. And all the men and women who were connected with this enterprise—including those who furnished the automobiles—are entitled to the highest credit for their labor of love, and their gracious ministry to these children.

And what greater reward can they ask than the fact that the trip will be a pleasing memory to these children as long as they live? Not only is this the case, but we may indulge the belief that the memory of this trip will make for the good citizenship of these children as they grow up to manhood and womanhood.

And here let me express the hope that the summer season will not close without some more journeys to the lake or elsewhere; for I am certain that there are other children in the city and suburbs who might very appropriately be served in a similar manner. I could name a number of families adjoining the corporation line whose children were not included in the three hundred.

Also I would like to offer the suggestion that the mothers of the children be included next time, for their own good and the children's good as well. I wish I could get all people to realize that every mother who is charged with the care and support of a number of children is a public servant, and that she should be recognized and respected as such, and should receive all necessary material help and the utmost possible interest and sympathy and encouragement. I have never counted the mothers in Newark who have no respite from their daily tasks and no chance for the recreation in the country that every mother needs. And I can recall no case in which I have known anybody to offer one of these mothers and her children a ride into the country.

NO CONTESTS ARE EXPECTED FOR COMMITTEE JOBS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Columbus, August 18.—Former Governor James M. Cox, Democratic nominee for governor was in Columbus today to confer with Democratic candidates for state offices which were here in connection with a meeting of the Democratic state central committee. The committee was to re-organize in preparation for fall campaign.

No contests were looked for in the re-organization. W. L. Finley of Kenton, who for several years has been Democratic campaign manager, was slated to again be elected chairman of the state executive or campaign committee, and W. W. Durbin, also of Kenton, was expected to be re-elected chairman of the state central committee.

It was expected that a new secretary of the executive committee would be selected to succeed John Beal of Lima, who is not a candidate for re-election. All other officers of both committees are expected to be re-elected.

The state central committee was to have met at 1 o'clock this afternoon but the meeting was postponed by numerous conferences between ex-Governor Cox and other candidates.

NO BAN PLACED ON PICNICS SAYS THE HEALTH DEPT.

Some misinterpretation of the recommendations issued by the health board for preventing the spread of infantile paralysis in the city has arisen, and yesterday afternoon a woman, who did not give her name, called the Advocate office and remonstrated against the holding of a picnic for children which is scheduled to be held in the near future. The health board in no way discourages the meetings of children in the open, and the recommendation of the board was for the closing of infant's classes in Sunday schools and the postponing of children's meetings indoors until the danger of the spread of the epidemic is past.

When asked about the rumor that children's classes in the public schools of the city would not open until October 1, Health Officer Knauss stated that he knew of no report to that effect.

ROPE BROKE; MAN KILLED.

Canton, O., Aug. 18.—Leonard Hayes, 27, a carpenter, was instantly killed at the Berger Works when a guy rope of a derrick on which he was working broke, letting a heavy truss fall on him breaking his neck.

King George of England is making a collection which may some day prove very valuable. It is a complete set of all the trench periodicals that are being issued for private circulation by the men at the various fronts. Many of them are extremely curious.

Michael Sweeney of LaCrosse, Wis., was working near the banks of the Mississippi when he saw a child floating down the river. He rowed out and picked it up. Its face had been held above water by it thick tresses and it was none the worse for the wetting. It turned out to be Michael's granddaughter.

Wall Street.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

New York, Aug. 18.—Heavy trading at irregular prices attended today's active opening. United States Steel, Reading and the leading coppers changed hands in single lots of 1,000 to 2,300 shares the two first named at concessions, while Anaconda. Inspiration and Kindred issues showed moderate improvement. Rails were under pressure; Reading soon yielding 1½ points and marines were variable with a fractional loss for the common stock and a corresponding advance for the preferred. Cuban-American sugar featured the high priced specialties on its 12½ point advance to new record of 250.
Marines were again the principal features, dealings in the common and preferred being enormous volume, with a new record for the latter on its advance of 4¾ point sto 103¾. Atlantic gulf and West Indies also registered a new high at 70½ and united friut gained almost 2 points. The overturn in steel was very extensive, that stock manifesting some reactionary tendencies, but recovering later. Other points of strength included American Smelting, Mexican Petroleum and some of the metals. Rails failed to shake off their early restraint, although Reading made slight improvement. Bonds were steady.
Heavy trading in United Fruit at an extreme advance of almost seven points with contrary movements in other leaders, featured the final hour. The closing was irregular.

The Wool Market.
[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Boston, Aug. 18.—The Commercial Bulletin will say tomorrow:
"Rather more inquiry was reported through the wool trade this week and while some provement was noted in demand largely for foreign wool, the market was quiet with little change over the past fortnight. Prices held steady for the best, but very inferior wools were irregular.
"The goods market are healthy, although not especially active. Manufacturers are well occupied generally on old orders."

Many people imagine that the first armored ship was the "iron-clad frigate" Gloire, launched for the French navy in 1857; yet, according to the Popular Science Monthly, the Dutch built an armor-plated vessel nearly 300 years earlier. That was in 1585, when Antwerp was besieged by the Spaniards. The Dutch took one of their biggest ships, cut her down and erected on the deck a battery with armored and sloping sides, within which they mounted eight of the heaviest guns the factories of the day could produce. The roof of the battery formed an armored breastworks for men armed with crossbows and shotguns, and there were gratings in the roof to provide ventilation for the battery below. The ship bore a striking resemblance to the Merrimac of the Civil War, which was designed and built on precisely the same principles.

Of all the industries in which the German Government is directly interested, the amber works at Konigsburg have been hit the hardest by the war, according to the Berliner Tageblatt, which, while asserting that the situation improved "considerably" during 1915, remarks that at the end of the business year of 1914, the Government had to cover a deficit of $200,500, compared with a profit of $172,000 in 1913. The production of raw amber fell from 472 tons, valued at about $620,000 to 193 tons, worth $250,000.

A miner lowered into a subterranean cavern opened by a miner's blast at Volcano, Nev., some time ago, was unable to discover the ends of the fissure. Stones dropped through the opening could be heard bounding from wall to wall, but there was no sound indicating that they reached the bottom. Sparkling stalactites on the sides of the cavern were revealed by lights lowered through the opening.

One of the Hollanders who has won for himself a very warm spot in the hearts of his countrymen is Louis Raemaekers, a cartoonist, of whose work the outstanding feature is a grim satiric humor. He spares not in his drawing and it is said that both the German and Austrian governments have threatened to bring criminal prosecutions against him.

Mrs. Maria Simpson Clingman of Cedarville, Ill., 100 years old December 12, has retained her mental and physical faculties to a remarkable degree and her conversation is as entertaining as it was a half century ago. She is one of the oldest Methodists in the world, having joined that denomination when she was a child.

In a dim light the conditions obtained in full daylight do not apply so far as the eye is concerned. In a feeble illumination the eye becomes more or less color-blind and is highly insensitive to red, which appears dead black, whereas green and blue objects appear as uncanny gray.

The most beautiful women in the world are said by experienced travelers to be the Indian women of the Isthmus of Tehauntepec, which lies just north of Yucatan in Mexico. They add to their picturesque attractiveness by wearing whatever fortune they may possess in the form of gold coins strung about the arms and neck.

British authorities, backed up by their French Allies, have decreed that Tommies need not pay rent for whatever quarters they may have to occupy from time to time in France, though it is probable that some restitution will be made the landlords by one or both governments when the war is over and opportunity to setle the cases present itself.

TENNIS FINALS NEXT THURSDAY AT WHITE FIELD

With the first preliminary of the annual tennis tournament over and only several sets of the second preliminary yet to be played, contestants and local enthusiasts are waiting in eager anticipation of the semi-finals and finals which are to be played on the courts of the White Athletic Field next Thursday.

There will be no women's tournament this year, and in the men's tournament only singles are being played. Despite this fact, much interest has been manifested, and much speculating is going on among devotees of the game as to the probable winners of the semi-finals and the winner of the finals who will be recognized as champion of the city.

Last season's champion, Daniel Weiny is not participating this year as he is located in Columbus for the summer, and Frederick Wright, who played Weiny last year for the championship, is picked for the winner of the finals.

The courts at the White field are in excellent condition, and although recent rains caused a lull in the sport, hundreds of boys and girls and men and women are flocking to the grounds each day to participate in or to witness the matches. One court was added last year, and one this year, making the total number five. All of the courts were improved this year and during the day they are in almost constant use.

In the second preliminary, which is not yet completed, Frank Taafel won over Edmund Bonham by scores of 7-5 and 6-4, Carl Brubaker over Calvin Hazlett by 6-1 and 6-4, and John Fuller forefeited to William Bliss, and Cyril Zentmeyer to John G. Gill. Fuller forefeited because of illness, and is now confined to his home. Gill and Wright have not yet played in the second preliminary, but they are picked as winners, an dobservers are almost certain that Wright will be entered in the finals. Taafel and Gill are looked upon as possible contenders against Wright in the finals.

LEONARD GOES TO WASHINGTON IN BIG TRADE OF PLAYERS
[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, Aug. 18.—Manager Griffith of the local American League club today announced he had traded Pitcher Boehling and Outfielder Moeller to the Cleveland club for Outfielder Smith and Infielder Leonard. Cleveland paid $6,000 for Leonard last fall and farmed him to the Columbus team of the American Association. He recently was recalled by Cleveland because of the good showing he made at third base for Columbus. Boehling and Moeller leave immediately for New York to join the Cleveland team and Smith and Leonard are expected here in time to get into the local line-up in tomorrow's game

The 1915 death rate among babies one year of age in St. Louis was the lowest of any year on record, and is among the lowest of all the cities in the country, according to a report by the St. Louis pure milk commission. The death rate was 80 in 1,000, a reduction from a rate of 103 in the previous year. The great falling off in deaths is held to be due to, first, the persistent campaigns of the health department, pure milk commission and other social agencies for the last 15 years, together with the enforcement of the new pure milk law during the year, and, second, to the unusually cool summer.

COST OF BABIES IN GREAT BRITAIN IS INCREASED $125 YEAR.

[Associated Press Correspondence]

London, Aug. 18.—It is estimated that the all-around expenditure on a baby born this year is probably from $100 to $125 higher than in 1914.

Food alone adds about $15 to the year's cost of the war-baby. Milk has gone up four cents a quart and it is said that the average baby consumes from 400 to 450 pints a year. Baby foods are up about ten per cent. Feeding bottles cost a third more, and the methylated spirit for heating the night's feed has advanced from ten cents to 25 cents a pint.

Baby garments cost more also. Everything made of wool has risen 33 per cent in price; all the cotton and wool mixture materials and garments are 25 per cent higher, the wholly cotton ones, owing to the rise in raw materials and labor, must be paid for at the rate of about 15 per cent more.

Even a baby's bath costs one-third more; soap is a third dearer, the bath thermometer is up about 25 per cent, toilet powder—chiefly because of the rise in the price of the boric acid it contains—is 100 per cent dearer.

Nearly all medicines cost much more.

Perambulators are about one-fourth dearer. What formerly was sold for $15 is now $20 and so on. A cot that could be bought before the war for $5 is now $7.50; the fleecy wool mattress, baby's basket and baby's high chair are all up proportionately.

Nurse's wages have advanced $5 or more and her keep is costing at least one-third more—an increase of $50 or more a year.

Barrooms are closed on Saturdays in Sweden because it is pay day, and the savings banks are open until midnight.

"THE ONLY LOGICAL THING TO DO"

The Daily Trade Record, a leading textile publication of New York, carried a half column article in its issue of Friday, July 28th, commenting favorably upon the announcement of this institution that owing to the great increase in the cost of raw materials we had decided to advance our price rather than lower our standard of quality.

The Trade Record characterizes our action as "The only logical thing to do."

This phrase sums up the consensus of opinion expressed by our customers. They prefer to pay a sufficient advance in price to cover the actual increase in the cost of raw materials and get the quality.

Up to and including August 31st, in order to give our customers the benefit of the materials on hand, we will continue at our old price of $15, no more, no less.

Effective September 1st, our price will be—

Amusements

Alhambra.

Mary Pickford in wooden shoes and red kirtle dancing to the tune of a hand organ' Mary Pickford planting tulips in a wooden shoe and presenting them to her lover. All of which means that the popular Famous Players star is gracing the title role of that company's delightful production, "Hulda From Holland,' by Edith Barnhard Delano, which is the Paramount Picture at the Alhambra theatre, tonight.

"The Temptation," the second Lasky production starring the celebrated operatic prima donna Geraldine Farrar will be the attraction at the Alhambra on Sunday. In this thrilling photodrama Miss Farrar is seen in an entirely different characterization than that in which she scored such a success in 'Carmen."

The Auditorium.

Crowds flocked to the Auditorium yesterday to see that widely discussed and advertised picture, "Where Are My Children." This is a most sensational gripping play that deals with a difficult matter but does so in a manner of utmost dignity.

"Where Are My Children' is one of the most interesting productions Newark has had the pleasure of seeing so far, for it is founded on truth, and it gives us cold, bare facts. But it does it with dignity. It does not rank among the masterpieces of filmdom, but it tells its story in a simple, refined way which is certain to impress all those who see it. There is no effort to rise above the standard of photoplay. All it strives to do is to give to us a picture of one of our great social evils, and this is done satisfactory The music is very pretty, there being a special score and Mrs. Daisy Graves Miller renders several song numbers that make the production stand out. The last showing of "Where Are My Children" will be given tonight at 7:30 and 9 o'clock.

Novelty From War Zone.

The Louverne Ladies' Band, who are traveling this season with the Billy "Single" Clifford Company, playing "Longer Longer Lucy," are made up of all French women whose headquarters are at Paris France. The ladies have been playing for years in their native country, but owing to the dreadful war, they were secured by Mr. Clifford's foreign agent, and everywhere they have been heard they have been a big feature for the show. The ladies parade the principal streets, and play a concert following the parade They also play again in the evening in front of the theatre. There are fourteen buxom French maidens who complete the make-up and they double into the Imperial Orchestra which is not only a treat in itself but also assures patrons their full money's worth. Musically, the Clifford show this year is the greatest attraction of its kind traveling, and the laughing principles are more abundant than ever "Linger Longer Lucy' at the Auditorium, matinee and night, Saturday, Aug. 19th. The advance sale of seats for this attraction started off yesterday and from indications a large crowd is sure to greet Mr. Clifford and his company at both the afternoon and evening performances on Saturday.

Nancy Boyer.

Ever popular "Nancy" and her metropolitan company are getting quite ready for the premier opening of their new play "The Little Lady From Lonesome Town," a story of California in four acts written by Geo. M. Rosener is here personally directing the presentation, the scenery is from the studio of the Schell Scenic Equipment Co., of Columbus, electrical effects and properties, etc. from the Calcium Light Co., of New York and the gowns (and there are many of them) worn by Miss Boyer, are from the well known New York firm, Adler and Co.

Miss Boyer is all wrapped up in her new vehicle and is happy over thought that many of her Newark friends will have the chance of seeing the first presentation on any stage of what she believes is the greatest play on the road today. The company that Mr. Testa has surrounded "Nancy" with is a large one and no money stood in the way of getting the best actors and actresses for her production. The company contains the following well known New York artists: Mr. Ferd Tidmarsh, Richard Scott, Daniel F. Lawlor, Happy Jimmy Brown, Thaddeus Wilber, Wm. McCarthy; Jane Stuart, Corda Davy and Julia Earl. So far, Mr. Testa has expended over $10,000.00 on the production and on next Tuesday afternoon, Newark show goers will have a chance of seeing a great big New York production in which Nancy Boyer is seen at her best, she appearing as a California Lonesome Town girl. Seats go on sale for both the matinee and evening shows at ten a. m. Saturday. Prices matinee all seats 25 cents, with children 15 cents. Night 25, 35 and 50 cents.

Mazda.

The films for "At Piney Ridge," were missent yesterday and did not arrive in time for show. For that reason the Mazda was closed until seven and pictures from Columbus were secured.

Those who came to see the play as advertised are asked to return tonight on the same tickets and see Miss Fritzi Brunette in "At Piney Ridge." In addition the Athletic serial No. 2 will be shown.

MABLE TRASK WINS FROM ST. FRISCO

Columbus, Aug. 18.—The final card of the fifth meeting of Grand Circuit racing will be stepped at the Columbus driving park today. Three events each worth $1°00 compose the concluding program as scheduled, but it is probable that another event will be added.

Today's fastest event is the 2:06 trot, with Joan, Peter Scott, Grand Chimes, and Director Todd as seemingly assured starters, and Guy Nella and Esperanza as possible contenders.

The 2:16 pace, transferred from yesterday's program and the 2:15 trot will be run with the field still unlisted. There is some doubt about the 2:12 pace being run according to the program, but Secretary Shepherd of the association has announced positively that some substitute event would be run in case the schedule heats were not run.

The windup of the meet finds no lagging of interest, and there is every indication that the followers will not close their score books before the last heat has been run.

Mable Trask beaten by St. Frisco last week at Pittsburgh, won from him yesterday in a five heat battle for the Athletic Club of Columbus $5000 stake. The race brought a new world's record for a five-heat trot, the best previous time for such an event having been made in Columbus in 1911 in the contest that Blace Girdle won after Billy Burke had taken the first heat and Hall Worthy the second.

Unsteadiness of Mable Trask gave St. Frisco each of the first two heats without vigorous finishes. The Cox mare, a slight favorite over the Geers horse, had a two length lead near the end of the first mile but surrendered it by a break. When ahead near the close of the second heat she broke when challenged by St. Frisco that came on eased up to win in 2:03¼, the fastest time made by a trotter anywhere this season.

Mable Trask in each of the next three heats never showed an inclination to do anything but trot. Miss Perfection did the pace-making, Mable Trask and St. Frisco trailing until the turns home. Three successive calls by Geers on St. Frisco did not get quite enough speed for the overhauling of Mabel Trask. The last quarter of the fifth and final heat was stepped in thirty seconds.

Donna Clay, full sister to Early Don, that took the Deverus stake Wednesday was an odds-on-favorite for the Buckeye Lake Yacht club's $3000 stake and she took the race in straight heats, each of the last two being trotted at her record 2:06¼. By the 2:07 pacers there was hard racing. Roan Hal, finally made the first choice after the Savoy was favored in early pools, won in straight heats. Camelia, Altawood and White Sox took turns in contending. The last half of the first mile was done in a minute. The finish just a head in front of White Sox, Roan Hal was forced to pace the third heat in 2:02¼.

FITZSIMMONS IS CLOSE TO PENNANT; NEED 2 MORE GAMES

The Fitzsimmons team of the Capital City League, Sunday will have an opportunity to cop the rag in this organization if they can put over a double win, when they meet the Mendels and the Wilke teams of Columbus.

The Mendel game is a postponed event but the night cap session with the Wilke team is a regular game.

The locals need two more games to cinch the pennant in the Capital city league and they are going into Sunday's double bill with a determination to bring the championship to Newark.

Should the local club pull up in the lead, it is probable Newark fans will have an opportunity of seeing a real championship game between the Fitzsimmons team and some other club, winner in the National Amateur Association.

Last year the Schullman team of Columbus made a great fight for the world's championship, but fell before the White Autos of Cleveland in one of the preliminary games leading to a final series with a team in the west. The Cleveland team successfully turned back Columbus, St. Louis, Chicago, and then was taken over the Rocky Mountains for the finals with a western amateur club. The world's amateur championship went to Cleveland.

It is not known whether there will be another western trip made this year by the winners in Ohio, but it such is the case, the local team, by winning a double-header Sunday, will be eligible to compete for this honor.

There is some talk of getting "Two-bits" Bierhalter, the well known arbitrator to handle the double session. The first game will be called promptly at 2 o'clock.

AL HAFT AGAIN IS BARKING AT BOWSER'S HEELS

According to advices from Columbus Al Haft ("Young Gotch"), the noted Columbus middleweight wrestler, is on the trail of Paul Bowser, Newark middleweight Champion of the world.

Haft says he will force Bowser into a match at 160 or run the Newark man to the tall grass.

Bowser at present is traveling with the Rutherford Carnival show and Haft knows it. Hence his freedom to talk recklessly. Bowser will be in Newark in about three weeks. It is hardly probable that Haft will ever make Bowser even hunt the short grass. For the local man might be induced to go the Columbus grappler one better and meet him in a handicap match, similar to the one at Lancaster, when Bowser defeated Ollie Smith.

Haft has been on Bowser's trail so long that Newark fans refuse to take him seriously. He has challenged Bowser at least a half dozen times and offered to place a large side bet. But when the grapplers got down to brass tacks, Haft set up a yell about weigth.

Next Wednesday night at Lancaster, Al will meet Billy Schrober, who wrestled in this city last week. The Columbus man expects a victory over Schrober to place him in a position for a match with Bowser.

But if Schrober wrestles anywhere near his true form, the Columbus man's aspirations for a go with the Newark man are going to be killed. According to Schrober, he has wrestled Gotch before to no decision.

"I couldn't beat Gotch in his home town," Schrober said recently while in the city. "But if I get him on strange territory, I'll be credited with a win."

Bowser no doubt will feel worried when he learns the Columbus man is on his trail, in a newspaper way, but let the Columbus man lay down something that he can defeat the local grappler and there will be a repition of the Ollie Smith farce.

TRAP SHOOTERS ARE READY FOR TOURNEY AT ST. LOUIS AUG. 21

St. Louis, Mo., Aug 18.—The Interstate Trapshooting Association's seventeenth Grand American Handicap Tournament is to be held at St. Louis under the auspices of the St. Louis Trapshooters Association, August 21 to 25.

The entries in the main events closed Aug. 5. At that time 561 entries were listed, and those arriving from the far western state have since swelled the total to more than six hundred.

In addition to this, the usual large number of penalty entries have been received. It is expected almost 700 shooters will take part in the contests. The attendance promises to eclips that at Dayton, O., in 1913 and 1914, and will be near the mark set at the record breaker at Chicago last year.

St. Louis is prepared to handle the tournament. The park of the St. Louis Trapshooters Association is considered among the best in the country. The grounds are fitted with permanent building and all modern equipment.

James W. Bell, president of the St. Louis Association, conducted three Grand American Handicap tournaments at Indianapolis, Ind., in 1904-05-06, and sportsmen feel confident he will bring the meet to a successful close in St. Louis.

In addition to the handicap event, the first time in the history of the State champions will be here to compete in the national championship. For event, women will be eligible to take part in the special and handicap match. This appears to have added considerable interest and enthusiasm.

Other events will include th eSt. Louis Introductory, Mound City Overture, Preliminary Handicap, Consolation Handicap, Double Target Championship and a special match for professionals.

SESSIONS

OF ADVENTISTS CONFERENCE OPENED THIS MORNING BY ELDER SLADE OF MT. VERNON.

Well Filled Pavilion Greets Speaker at Last Night's Session—Address on "Victorious Life."

The first meeting of the Conference session of the Ohio Conference of Seventh-day Adventists was called to order this morning by Elder E. K. Slade, the president of the Conference. At the calling of the roll, delegates responded from Cleveland, Columbus, Cincinnati, Dayton, Toledo, and Springfield, and many other cities and towns of the state. Little else was done at this opening meeting save the seating of delegates, reading of the president's address and the providing for the usual committees. The president's address showed a splendid increase in souls and finances.

The opening service of the Convention at the 7:30 hour last evening was led in song by Elder H. A. Weaver, of Van Wert, Ohio; prayer by Dr. D. H. Kress, of Washington, D. C. The president of the Conference Elder E. K. Slade, spoke on the "Victorious Life." The great pavilion was well filled. It was surprising to the men in charge that such a large audience was present at the first meeting. It is a testimony to the good order of things the campers found on their arrival at the Fairgrounds.

Elder Slade said in part:

A true Christian life is a victorious life. It is a life in which one walks and sees and lives and stands and understands by faith. It is a life of victory over every force and over every foe. "This is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith." The mistake of many is that it is faith exercised in one's religion and in the way he practices it and in one's self. One man stood and prayed "God, I thank Thee that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican. I fast twice in the week. I give tithe of all that I possess." Here is a man having faith, but not the kind that brings victory. The publican, a recognized sinner, prayed "God be merciful to me, a sinner." He went to his house justified. He thought of no merits of his own to present. His faith was wholly in God. The only true religion is that which leads a sinner to lose confidence in himself and trust wholly in God for salvation. The victory is not to be won by human endeavor, for it has already been won for the Christian. In all ages, the combined forces of the world have been in warfare with the child of God. As it was possible for Moses to lead God's chosen children against mighty forces, through the sea, through the desert, and to overcome strong nations, so it is to be with the Christian. But the greatest battle to be fought and victory to be won is to overcome the larger world within. Even this victory is made possible through faith. A man who knows his need and knows his God is in a position to exercise that faith that will make a victorious life possible. A form of godliness without the power thereof is seen on every hand among professedly Christian people.

This morning at 5:30 the campers assembled for devotional exercises. Notwithstanding the early call, hundreds responded and a most inspiring service was enjoyed, led by Elder W. W. Miller, of Springfield, Ohio one of the ministers of the Conference, recently returned from six years of service as a missionary in India.

The service this afternoon was in charge of Professor W. W. Prescott, of Washington, D. C., field secretary of the General Conference, just returned from an extended trip through South America. The professor related himself to present conditions and time, and the outlook, in the light of the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Professor N. S. Ashton, of Mt. Vernon, Ohio, president of the Mt. Vernon Academy, an institution for the education of the youth for service in the cause for which Seventh-day Adventists are set, will speak at the 7:30 hour this evening on "What Nation Will Next Rule the World? Will it be Great Britain or Will it be Germany?"

Why Suffer With Backache, Kidneys or Rheumatism Now?

Letter Tells of Long Looked-for Prescription.

Dear Readers—I am making a personal appeal to those of you who are bothered with kidney and bladder trouble, that you give up the use of harsh salts or alcoholic kidney medicines and in their place take a short treatment of "Anuric." I have taken many of Dr. Pierce's medicines for the past twenty-five years with good results. I suffered with kidney trouble for some years. I recently heard of the newest discovery of Doctor Pierce, namely, his "Anuric" Kidney Tablets. After using same I am completely cured of my kidney trouble. I recommend, heartily, all sufferers to Dr. Pierce, for what he has done for me cannot be estimated too highly. A doctor pronounced me a well preserved woman for my age, all due, I believe, to Dr. Pierce's medical aid.

Yours very truly, Mrs. Melinda Miller, Ringgold, Ohio, Route 1.

NOTE: You've all undoubtedly heard of the famous Dr. Pierce and his well-known medicines. Well, this prescription is one that has been successfully used for many years by the physicians and specialists at Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y., for kidney complaints, and diseases arising from disorders of the kidneys and bladder, such as backache, weak back, rheumatism, dropsy, congestion of the kidneys, inflammation of the bladder, scalding urine, and urinary troubles.

Up to this time, "Anuric" has not been on sale to the public, but by the persuasion of many patients and the increased demand for this wonderful healing Tablet, Doctor Pierce has finally decided to put it into the drug stores of this country within immediate reach of all sufferers.

Simply ask for Doctor Pierce's Anuric Tablets. There can be no imitation. Every package of "Anuric" is sure to be Dr. Pierce's. You will find the signature on the package just as you do on Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, the ever-famous friend to ailing women, and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, proven by years to be the greatest general tonic and reconstructor for any one.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Fremont, O., Aug. 18.—The second attempt within 48 hours to rob the German-American bank at Lindsey was foiled by watchmen last night and robbers who tried to force the rear door were fired upon and fled. The bank vault was dynamited Tuesday night but withstood the blast.

What to Use and Avoid On Faces That Perspire

Skin, to be healthy, must breathe. It also must perspire—must expel, through the pores, its share of the body's waste material. Certain creams and powders clog the pores, interfering both with elimination and breathing, especially during the heated period. If more women understood this, there would be fewer self ruined complexions. If they would use ordinary mercolized wax they would have healthy complexions. This remarkable substance actually absorbs a bad skin, also unclogging the pores Result. The fresher, younger under-skin is permitted to breathe and to show itself The exquisite new complexion gradually peeps out, one free from any appearance of artificiality Obtain an ounce of mercolized wax from your druggist and try it. Apply nightly like cold cream, for a week or two, washing it off mornings

To remove wrinkles, here's a marvelously effective treatment, which also acts naturally and harmlessly. Dissolve an ounce of powdered saxolite in a half pint witch hazel and use as a wash lotion

To mourn their loss he leaves his wife and three children, A. F. Weaver of Portland, Ore., Helen, aged 4, and Edna, aged 14, both of the home. Mr. Weaver was born three and one-half miles south of Etna. He was a member of the Odd Fellows.

Funeral services will be held Sunday at Mt. Zion, 3 miles south of Etna, at 10:30 o'clock. Rev. Gruger will officiate. Interment will be made in the Mt. Zion cemetery.

Louis Trunnel.
Louis Trunnel, laborer, was taken ill at the county jail last night, and died there at 7:15 o'clock this morning. One week ago Trunnel was taken to the sanitarium, and was later taken to the county jail. He was a resident of this city.

Mrs. Charles Schaller.
Mrs. Charles Schaller, aged 52 years, died at her home, 121 Elmwood avenue at 12:15 o'clock Friday afternoon. Mrs. Schaller has been ill for the past year, having undergone an operation at Mt. Carmel Hospital, Columbus, and later she was a patient at Johns Hopkins Hospital at Baltimore, Md.

During her long illness she has borne her suffering with the greatest fortitude and patience. She was born May 21, 1864, and is survived by her husband, two children, James and Helen Schaller, and two sisters, Mrs. Jerry Roach and Mrs. Charles Vietmier, both of Columbus.

Walter Pherson Seward, youngest son of Watson C. and Jennie Seward, was born at Perryton, O., Sept. 7, 1889, and died at Asheville, N. C., Aug. 13, 1916, aged 26 years, 11 months and 6 days. He was united in marriage to Miss Flossie Corwin of Rushsylvania, O., March, 1909, to which union was born one son, now in his sixth year. He leaves to mourn their loss his wife, son, father, one sister, Mrs. Morris Kent and two brothers, Charles of this city, and Oren of Cleveland, his mother and sister Bessie having preceeded him to the great beyond. In early youth he united with the Methodist church and later transferred his membership by letter to the M. E. church at Rushsylvania, being a consistent and faithful member of this church to the time of his death. Fraternally he was a member of the K. of P. lodge. It has been our great privilege to have known Walter since the day he was born; to play with him as a boy; to know him as a young man; to know him as a husband and father. And to know him was to like him; to associate with him was to love him. He numbered his friends by his acquaintances, and faithfully lived up to the teachings of his church and to the obligations of his order, and when he died he left the name of Seward just as he found it when he was born—untainted and unstained.

presidents was in conference with President Wilson in the blue room at the White House.

There was some indications that President Wilson might call in the financial powers which control the roads.

Just after the railroad presidents left the White House it became known unofficially that the employes had voted to accept President Wilson's proposal and that some of the leaders had gone to the White House to tell him so.

The railroad presidents agreed to return to the White House tomorrow to further discuss the situation.

It was made clear to President Wilson that the railroad presidents are not disposed to yield the eight-hour day and that they insisted on arbitration.

The attitude of the railroad presidents seemed to indicate little chance of the plan proposed by the President being accepted. Several declared the principle of arbitration in industrial disputes was at stake and must be maintained even at the cost of a strike.

President Wilson pointed out the disaster which would attend a nation-wide strike but the officials only answered they were ready to arbitrate the question at issue.

NOVEL CONTESTS MARK OUTING OF KTS. OF COLUMBUS

One of the most successful outings ever given by the Knights of Columbus was the annual field day for the councils of Central Ohio, which was held at Buckeye Lake on Thursday.

The day was ideal and over 4,000 registered at the registration booth in the waiting room. The grounds were thronged with visitors, and many special trains brought the knights and their friends to the park. Large delegations were present from Zanesville, Newark, Athens, New Lexington, Delaware, Lancaster, London and Cambridge.

The Glass pavilion had been secured for the exclusive use of the Knights during the afternoon and evening and dancing was enjoyed, the capacity of the pavilion being taxed to care for the visitors. At 5 o'clock a program of athletic events was held on the athletic field, and created much merriment. There were some novel races, and the prizes were very attractive. The men's and women's race attracted attention. The men were lined up at one end of the field and the women at the other, even in number, and the women were given three matches and the men cigars. The men dashed to the women, who lighted their cigar and then back. Another feature was the pillow fight which took place on an elevated pole.

During the evening, the choral club of the Columbus Council gave a delightful program on the pavilion and the remainder of the evening was devoted to dancing. This year's field day was in charge of the Zanesville council.

Says We Become Cranks on Hot Water Drinking

Hopes every man and woman adopts this splendid morning habit.

Why is man and woman, half the time, feeling nervous, despondent, worried; some days headachy, dull and unstrung; some days really incapacitated by illness.

If we all would practice inside-bathing, what a gratifying change would take place. Instead of thousands of half-sick, anaemic-looking souls with pasty, muddy complexions we should see crowds of happy, healthy, rosy-cheeked people everywhere. The reason is that the human system does not rid itself each day of all the waste which it accumulates under our present mode of living. For every ounce of food and drink taken into the system nearly an ounce of waste material must be carried out, else it ferments and forms ptomaine-like poisons which are absorbed into the blood.

Just as necessary as it is to clean the ashes from the furnace each day, before the fire will burn bright and hot, so we must each morning clear the inside organs of the previous day's accumulation of indigestible waste and body toxins. Men and women, whether sick or well, are advised to drink each morning, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, as a harmless means of washing out of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the indigestible material, waste, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Millions of people who had their turn at constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, nervous days and sleepless nights have become real cranks about the morning inside-bath. A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will not cost much at the drug store, but is sufficient to demonstrate to anyone, its cleansing, sweetening and freshening effect upon the system.

IF KIDNEYS AND BLADDER BOTHER

Take a glass of Salts to flush out your Kidneys and neutralize irritating acids.

Kidney and Bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in avoiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.

Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble.

An Illinois poultry raiser has found that it is possible to hatch in an incubator eggs that have been cracked, by pasting paper over the cracks with gum arabic.

ACTORS NEED IMAGINATION WHILE PLAY IS IN THE MAKING

NANCY BOYER

It sure takes a lot of imagination to be an actor or an actress when the play is in the "making." Just at the moment when the leading man is making an impassioned speech or the comedy lead is trying for his very best laugh, the stage hands will find the foliage on the tree is a misfit, or they will move the town pump to another location.

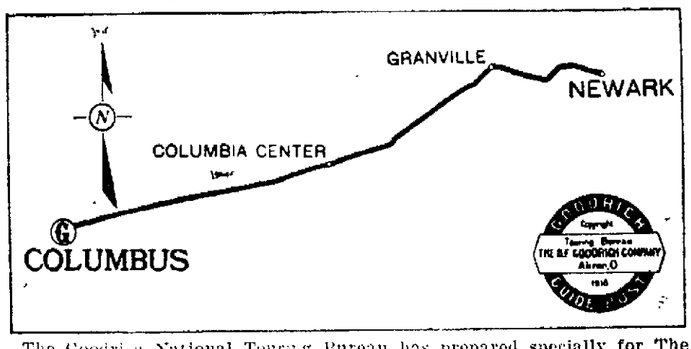

Newark is to have the honor of a premier night, of a play made in Newark, staged in Newark, and first played in Newark, also. Rehearsals for "The Little Lady from Lonesome Town" are being held each day at the Auditorium Theatre under the direction of the author of the play, George M. Rosener. The play is to star Nancy Boyer, and the company has assembled here for the rehearsals, and it is interesting to watch the production assume some semblance of the play you will see on the opening night.

Pieces of scenery go skimming across the stage, and weird parts become dwelling houses. There has to be a great stretch of the imagination on the part of the players in order to get a bit of realism in the parts during the weeks of preparation. A nice dapper young man slouches on the stage and talks a guttural English, and you discover to the stage world that he is a heap big chief Indian. A clean cut young chap, who at a glance you would know led the very nicest kind of a life, becomes a nervous irritable young scoundrel the minute he starts to read his lines and it is found he is cast for the no'er do well who gambles, drinks, steals and does lots of other terrible things.

Then there is the director, one minute he is tense with interest, the next tearing his hair and waving his hands, as one of the players misinterprets his lines, or gets in the wrong action.

But all these parts will be fitted together, the crudeness will be removed and a finished production will catch the interest of the audience, and lift it to the world of reality. The play will be produced for the first time at the Auditorium, Tuesday afternoon, preceding a big booking and the final dress rehearsal will be held Sunday evening.

AGED MAN COULD NOT WALK UP A SHORT, EASY HILL

Aged Gentleman Was In Great Pain. Wife Tells How He Found Relief.

It often happens that even after a deadly disease seems to have been cured, its effects are felt for months by the system that has been pulled down and weakened by the fight against its power. As we grow older in years our systems seem to weaken and lose the old time power to withstand the effects of the hundreds of maladies always trying to find a foothold in the human system.

Here is the case of John Curran for an instance. The story is told by Mrs. Curran in her signed statement and it is alive with human interest. It will be worth your while to read it carefully. This is what Mrs. Curran says:

"Last winter my husband had a severe attack of the grippe, and even though he fully recovered, it left him rather weak and run-down, as it is apt to in the case of an elderly person, my husband being 75 years old. Beside this he has been troubled with pains in his side and stomach. He has also suffered intensely from shortness of breath; why his breath has been so short that he often has not been able to walk, even though he has to go but a very short distance, because of a little hill that he was not able to climb without his breath coming in short, painful gasps.

"Only a short time ago he tried Native-Roots, Double Strength and it has surely made a new man of him. The pains in his side and stomach are gone, he is much stronger and the shortness of breath has entirely disappeared. Needless to say he is now working and feeling good and Double Strength Native-Roots did it."

Extract of Native-Roots (double strength) referred to by Mrs. Curran can be secured in Newark only at Erman's Arcade Drug Store who have been awarded the sole and exclusive agency for this wonderful medicine. For this reason please do not try to buy it from another dealer or accept from him "something just like it" or "something just as good" but go straight to Erman's, take home a bottle and see what a difference it makes in the way you feel, eat and sleep. Do it today.

COMB SAGE TEA INTO GRAY HAIR

Ladies! Try this! Darkens beautifully and nobody can tell—Brings back its gloss and youthfulness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients, costing about 50 cents a large bottle, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of muss.

While gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet article requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Minnesota farmers in four years have spent about $20,000,000 for new buildings.
